Welcome

We extend a warm welcome to everyone who is davening with us today.

Welcome to all the guests who are here celebrating Bracha Kurtzer's simcha. A special welcome to Mrs. Sylvia Kurtzer, Bracha's grandmother from New Jersey. Welcome also to Mrs. Sharlene Kark, Bracha's grandmother from Boulder, and to Sharlene's husband, Mr. Neil Kark. We also welcome Ben's sisters and brothers-in law, Gale and Max Bienstock, from Philadelphia, and Debbie and Richie Forman from New Jersey. Another warm welcome to Melissa's sister and brother in law, members of our Shul, Ellyn and Steve Hutt. We welcome back Audrey Hutt, from the University of Pennsylvania, and Ben Hutt, from the Skokie Yeshiva, who graciously missed some school days to join in the simcha.

The U.S. Ambassador to Israel, Daniel Kurtzer, and his wife, Sheila, send regrets that they could not attend, but we want to assure everyone that this position in no way reflects a change in official U.S. policy.

Notes

Shabbat Shiur—Today's Shabbat shiur is entitled An Introduction To Sefer Bereishis And To New Forms Of Methodology In Torah Study.

Bar and Bat Mitzvah Classes—Beginning on Sunday, October 21st, Rabbi Alter will be leading classes for boys and girls approaching their Jewish age of majority. The class for boys and their fathers will begin at 8:10 AM, and the class for girls and their mothers will begin at 9:20 AM. Please call the office to RSVP, so that sufficient breakfast food may be ordered and served.

Siddur Request—A number of Siddurim have become slightly damaged, in having pages fall out of them (especially page 460). Jay Moskowitz requests that rather than discarding such pages in the "shamot" box, that the loose pages be given to him so the value of the $25 Siddurim may be preserved by mending them.

Kiddush

The Kiddush today is sponsored by EDOS.

Seudah Hashlishit

Today's family Seudah Hashlishit is at 5 PM and is sponsored by Melissa and Ben Kurtzer in honor of Bracha becoming a Bat Mitzvah.

Celebrating a special occasion? Commemorating a special day?

It's only $36 to sponsor a week of the East Side Eruv, and your announcement will be heard by all weekly callers. Call Mutty Weiss, 303-886-0000 as far in advance as possible to reserve your week.

The ERUV hotline is 303-836-3788: Check each week one hour before candlelighting.
